INTRODUCTION

This compilation brings together the compiler's research and that of others, who have gathered data concerning Robert and Ann Willson and their descendants.

Research was first begun in the latter part of 1800 by Mary Caroline (Willson) Vail (7) and was continued in some lines after her death in 1900 by her children and grand-niece, Florence W. Green (9). Similar data but not as detailed, was gathered by William C. Armstrong and published in The Lundy Family and Their Descendants in 1902. It is believed that much of Armstrong's Willson data was supplied by Vail. Both Vail and Armstrong were unable to trace various descendants.

From 1945 to 1947, Mrs. Herbert E. Brown of Terre Haute, Ind. compiled a genealogy and history concerning the ancestry and descendants of Jeremiah Willson (4), who was not traced by either Vail or Armstrong. More data was given on this line by Charles R. Piety in An Early History of the Piety Family and Kinsmen, published in 1956.

Sometime before 1955, Albert S. Wilson Sr. (9) began extensive research on Robert and Ann Willson and his descent from them through Jonathan Willson Jr. (5), who had not been traced before. Many new facts were uncovered in America and his research in England brought to light new data concerning Ann. His correspondence with Leslie A. Wilson, Esq. of Little Cobblers, Homer Green, High Wycombe, Buchinghamshire, England, led them to believe that Robert Willson might have been a descendant of a branch of the Richmansworth and Chorleywood, Herts Willson's or Wilson's, who moved to Yorkshire, where they became interested in textiles. This relationship has not been definitely proven. On the basis that the Willson's of Yorkshire were formerly of Chorleywood and or Richmansworth, A. S. Wilson Sr. examined the minutes of the Society of Friends meetings held near these towns from 1665 to 1685 and found the following item:listed on page 132 Upperside of Buchinghamshire, 1669 - 1699: "Samuel Wilson, 7th day of the 11th month, 1683 witnessed a marriage". This Samuel may have been a kinsman, as Robert and Ann Willson named their son, Samuel. Although, A. S. Wilson Sr. was unable to learn more about Robert and Ann's ancestry and life, he thought it was significant that they could write their own name, which was quite unusual for the Sixteenth Century, when the X was common for a signature.

INTRODUCTION

In 1956, the compiler began research on the ancestry and descendants of his great-great-grandfather, Elisha Willson (6), who was not traced by Vail or Armstrong. While on a trip to visit the Quakertown, N. J. homestead, I meet Florence W. (Green) Broomall, now Mrs. William B. Ewing Jr. of West Grove, Chester Co., Pa., who encouraged me to compile an up-to-date family genealogy. Needed information was obtained by interviews and correspondence. All new and old data was then organized and arranged into generations, with an index.

I wish to thank and acknowledge all persons, who supplied information and especially to the following with reference to data supplied by them. Mrs. George Fadley Sr. - Amos P. Lundy (6). Miss Emily L. Trimmer - descendants of Ura Willson (6) and Henry S. Trimmer. Mrs. Stella M. (Wilson) Abbs and Mrs. Gertrude E. (Abbs) Parsons - descendants of Henry Barrett Wilson (6). Mrs. Warren Hilyard - descendants of William Wesley Wilson (6). Mrs. William B. Ewing Jr. - descendants of James Willson (3). Miss Anna Jane Weed - descendants of Mary Jane Willson (6) and James Harmon Weed. Carl J. Willson - descendants of Gilbert T. Willson (7). Mrs. Ada Hall - descendants of Rosella L. Willson (7) and Joseph S. Kintz. Mrs. William Herbert Willson - descendants of Nathan and Jane Hunt Willson and Ezra Willson and Anna A Kester.

I also wish to acknowledge my wife's assistance in indexing and her encouragement this past year for the completion of the compilation.

Special acknowledgement is given to Lenora M. (Smith) Drake, who gave financial assistance to help provide the photographs.

In general if errors are found, I would like to learn about them; and if additional related data is known or becomes available, I shall be glad to receive them. But in order to be of use, all data should be accurate and complete as possible, with connections to names listed in the book.

INSTRUCTIONS

Descendants are arranged by generations. For example Robert Willson (1), who is the first ancestor, is listed in the First Generation. His children are listed with him but a generation number within parenthesis follows their names. For example, Samuel Willson I (2), who is also listed in the Second Generation.

A specific number is assigned to each descendant, who is traced, such as Samuel Willson I (2), who is no 2 and Gabriel Willson (3), who is no. 6. These identification numbers are placed in the left margin before the descendant's name and indicate that the person is covered in the next generation, where the number is again given.

The index must be consulted to locate the exact pages, where a descendant is listed. All persons having the name of Willson or Wilson are indexed under WILLSON. Keep in mind spelling variations of christian and surnames.

Please note that maiden and former married names are placed in parenthesis and those unknown are listed as (---). Plain dashes: --- represent unknown first names. References are given to other books, where some female descendants and their issue are traced.

FIRST GENERATION

1 The ancestral lineage of the Willson family begins with Robert and Ann Willson, who were married in Scarborough, Yorkshire, England on the 9th day of the 3rd (May) month of 1672, (Old Style). They were members of the Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers and remained in that faith to the end of their lives. Research done by Mary C. (Willson) Vail (7) states that "Robert (was) dismissed from Scarborough March 2 - 1682 to the care of their friend's in New Jersey and Penna.". He with Ann and their four children came to America in 1682, landed at Philadelphia, and settled in Chesterfield Township, Burlington County, New Jersey. According to family tradition, Robert and his wife and family came on the "Welcome" in the Spring of 1682, whereas William Penn came in the Fall.

Eight days before their marriage, they signed a bond concerning Ann's child by her marriage to Robert Witham. The bond was dated the 1st of the 3rd month of 1672, and is listed on page 28 of the Extracts from Whitby Register at Friends House, London, England. The bond states that, "Thos. Staindridge, deceased bro." of Ann, left ten pounds to Ann's child by her marriage to Robert Witham. One of the witnesses to the bond was Peter Hodgson, who also witnessed their marriage certificate. The name of Ann's child is not known. A copy of the bond is printed in the appendix.

Robert and Ann's marriage certificate is recorded in the Register of Yorkshire, England Quarterly Meeting of the Society of Friends and states that the marriage was held in Ann's house in Scarborough, within the limits of the Pickering Monthly Meeting of Friends. The certificate also states that Robert was a bachelor and Ann the widow of Robert Witham. Twenty-one Friends signed the certificate as witnesses and among them was a Danill Wilson. A copy of the certificate is printed in the appendix.

In view of Vail's, Armstrong's and Shotwell's research and the statements in the bond and marriage certificate, more recently obtained by Albert S. Wilson Sr. (9) in England, it is difficult to determine the maiden name of Ann, unless she was not a full sister of Thos. Staindridge. Both Armstrong and Shotwell state that Ann's maiden name was Hoag or Hogg; that she and Robert Willson were married in 1672; and lived in Scarborough, Yorkshire, England, before coming to America in 1682.

FIRST GENERATION

Robert and Ann brought with them to America a "Breeches Bible", printed in 1606 and 1618, bearing the inscription, "John Willson his book". Whether John was Robert's father has not been ascertained. This rare Bible has been entrusted to the Friends Historical Society Library at Swarthmore College, Pa. Robert's autograph appears on one page of the Bible and those of his son Samuel and daughter Rebecca on another. These original signatures show the surname spelled as: WILLSON.

Another interesting object brought to America by Robert and Ann is a large cupboard, which was recently refinished and is owned by Mrs. William Ewing Jr. (Florence W. Green) (9) of West Grove, Chester Co., Pa. The cupboard has always been owned by a Willson descendent.

The first legal record found of Robert and Ann Willson in the new world is from "The Survey Book, Volume 21, First Series, page 356, New Jersey Archives," 1st month, 1684. Robert is found in the report of a survey made for Thomas Woods of 300 acres of land on the south side of Crosswicks Creek, N. J. on lands adjoining those of Robert Willson. Since the lands purchased were adjacent to those already owned by Robert prior to March (1st month), 1684, it follows that proof of his residence is rather definitely established. No record of a deed for Robert's property has been located, although the above reference is made on page 49, Revels Book of Surveys of West Jersey, Liber A, (Testimony of Thomas Revel, 1687).

Robert is mentioned many times in the records of the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting, New Jersey Society of Friends, which was established in 1684. The first reference is as follows: "At ye monthly meeting ye 8th of ye 12th month (February), 1684, at ye place aforesaid, (Francis Davenport's house, near Crosswicks Creek, now called Chesterfield in West Jersey), Robert Murflin did signefyeyt there was a difference betwist him and William Black and he desired that it might be ended." It was ordered that Thomas Farnsworth and Robert Willson should speak to William Black concerning it and to give an account to the next monthly meeting.

In 1685, Robert Willson was appointed as one of the trustees of the Friends Burial Grounds at Crosswicks, according to page 290 of Woodward and Hagerman's The History of Burlington County (New Jersey). On page 17, R. S. of the 98 minutes for Chesterfield Meeting, "Ye 7th day of ye 12th month 1688," Robert was selected by the meeting as a representative to the Quarterly Meeting. Other references to him are on pages 5, 17, 34, 36, 52, 66, and 83 and refer to his activities within the Society of Friends.

Robert Willson's name, including many others, was recorded as a proprietory of several undivided shares of West Jersey, and from study, it seems that these shares were to Thomas Budd for 15,000 acres, and was referred to the General Assembly on May 12, 1687. For more information and source, see page 427 of West Jersey Records, 1664 - 1707, Volume 21, Liber B, Part I. According to page 277 of Woodman and Hagerman's History of Burlington County (New Jersey), he was selected in 1688, as constable for Chesterfield Township, which indicates that he must have been a resident for sometime to have been chosen. Smith's History of New Jersey states that Robert Willson was a member of the Grand Jury, which meet at Burlington, N. J. in February of 1688. The Burlington Co., N. J. Records, Volume II, page 10, gives the cataloged cattle markings for Robert Willson as: "Ear marks: Robert Willson: Right ear, two slits, ye left undercut next ye head." Robert was also a member of the General Assembly in 1697 and his name appears among the Quaker members of the House of Representatives of West Jersey, to uphold the interests of the King, in 1696 - 1697. For source, see New Jersey Archives, 1st series, Volume 2, page 147-8, for 1687 - 1703. Consequently, the descendents of Robert Willson are eligible for membership in the Society of Colonial Wars, due to his legislative service.

A tract of land, "the thirtieth part of a property", lying in and near the town of Burlington, N. J., was bought on Jan. 12, 1695, by Robert Willson from John Hutchinson. From this tract, he sold to Daniel Smith, merchant of Burlington, "a water lot, house lots, and town bound lots in the town of and town bounds of Burlington in 1698 and is styled in the deed as, Robert Willson, yeoman of Crosswicks Creek, Burlington Co." For source, see New Jersey Records, Liber B, Part II, page 582 and 723. In 1702, Robert purchased 260 acres of land from Richard and Susanna Stockton, bordering on Crosswicks Creek, and probably adjoining lands already owned by him. This land descended to his son, Samuel I (2), who sold it in 1733 to Henry Coate.

The last notice of Robert Willson in the minute books of the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting of Friends, occurred on the 2nd day of the 12th month (February), 1709, when his death was recorded as an overseer and the meeting appointed John Bunting to fill his office. The New Jersey Abstracts of Wills list Robert Willson of Chesterfield, Burlington Co., on March 27, 1708, as making a nuncupative will, in which he spoke to his wife, Ann, and son, Samuel. He mentioned his daughter, Rebecca; son-in-law, Cornelius Empson; his granddaughter, Mary Empson; and grandson, Robert Willson. His wife and son were made executors. An inventory of the personal estate of Robert and Ann Willson, both deceased, was made the 10th month of 1709. It amounted to 181 pounds and 6½ shillings, and was conducted by Anthony Woodward, Thomas Foulkes, and John Thorn. No death date of Ann has been preserved. Since the inventory covered the personal estate of both Robert and Ann, it is likely that she died before December of 1709.

Robert and Ann Willson's four children were all born in Scarborough, Yorkshire, England. Their names and birthdates were reported by the Pickering Monthly Meeting of Friends to the Yorkshire Quarterly Meeting and are recorded in its register of births, marriages and burials.

ISSUE:

i. Sarah Willson (2). b. 12-14-1673; d. 1700. Buried 9-30-1700 at Chesterfield Friends Ground. Married in 1693 to Cornelius Empson. Parents of at least one child.

1. Mary Empson (3).

ii. Deborah Willson (2). b. 9-21-1674; d. 1687. Probably buried at Chesterfield Friends Ground, N. J.

iii. Rebecca Willson (2). b. 2-14-1677; d. 1760/61. Married in 1710 to Samuel Large (1688 - 1765), who was born in England and probably the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Large. Removed in 1729 from Burlington Co., N. J. to Bethlehem Township, now Franklin, Hunterdon Co., N. J., where they purchased 300 acres from Martha Deacon. Their farm was near Samuel Willson I (2). Parents of one son, Jacob, whose granddaughter, Elizabeth Lundy (5) married Eli Willson (5), no. 28.

2 iv. Samuel Willson I (2). b. 5-1-1681; d. 12-19-1761. Married Esther Cuerton

SECOND GENERATION

2 SAMUEL WILLSON I (2), the son of Robert and Ann Willson, was born the 1st day of the 5th month of 1681 in Scarborough, England and died the 19th day of the 12th month of 1761 in Hunterdon Co., N. J. Buried in Friends Cemetery, Quakertown, N. J. Brought to America as a baby in 1682. Married in 1705 to Esther (called Hester) Overton, who was born 10-26-1682, the daughter of Samuel and Hannah Overton. Samuel and Esther were members of the Society of Friends and first settled in Chesterfield Township, Burlington Co., N. J., where their eight children were born. They probably settled on the Willson tract bordering on Crosswicks Creek, where they remained until 1729-30, when they removed to Hunterdon Co., N. J.

Samuel and Esther's first intentions of marriage were declared and recorded before the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting of Friends on the 1st day of the 9th month of 1705, and their second intentions on the 6th day of the 9th month, at which time they were granted liberty to proceed. No record has been found of a copy of their marriage certificate, although they lived in the township for nearly twenty-five years after their marriage.

References are found in the minutes (Book R. S., 98) of the Chesterfield Society of Friends, N. J., for Samuel Willson on pages 78, 79, 83, 99, 116, 163, 179, 211, and 227 to mention a few. According to page 280 of Woodward and Hageman's History of Burlington County, Samuel served as an overseer of the poor and in other Chesterfield Township offices, including the Surveyor of Highways in 1724.

In 1730, Samuel Willson and his family removed from Burlington Co., to Hunterdon Co., N. J., where he purchased 600 acres of land in Bethlehem Township, from Jacob Doughty for "the sum of 300 pounds in lawful silver money of the Kings Dominions in America". The deed is dated Jan. 22, 1730 and is in the custody of Mrs. William Ewing Jr. (Florence W. Green) (9) of West Grove, Chester Co., Pa., who owns sixty acres of the original tract. Samuel, Esther, and all of their children removed to their homestead, near Quakertown, N. J., within the limits of the Richwood Monthly Meeting of Friends. At that time, the eldest child was twenty-four years of age and the youngest was five, and none were married.

Five years later in 1735, Samuel built a house on the farm, which seems to have been visited by William C. Armstrong, before he wrote The Lundy Family and Their Descendents in 1902. Page 461 of Armstrong's book describes the house as: "About a mile southwest of the village of Quakertown, New Jersey, in Hunterdon County, stands an olde mansion. It is built of stone and high up on its west gable appears the description: S. H. W. 1735. The initials are those of Samuel and Hester (Overton) Willson, who built here a home that was destined to shelter many generations of their descendents. The house gives evidence of having been wellbuilt; the walls, laid up in clay, are firm and solid and will endure perhaps another century if no ruder hand than that of Time be laid upon them. The enormous chimneys contain almost stone enough to build a moderate-sized house. In the western gable near the date stone there is a small square loop-hole which one might suppose had been intended for use in defending the castle against the attacks of Indians were it not for the fact that the owners thereof were members of the peace-loving sect called Quakers. Running along the exterior walls on both sides is the water table; and an ancient pent-house protects one of the doors. The partitions of the interior are of wood and are panelled all the way up to the lofty ceiling. Originally the huge beams were exposed to view; the ceiling being a comparatively recent innovation. Two small windows set quite high in the thick walls admitted but scant light and the general appearance must have been somewhat gloomy. The great fire-place with its stock-hole in the jamb speaks eloquently of the pleasures of the olden times, for there the young people of the family with their neighboring cousins and friends gathered around to enjoy social converse and innocent games."

By 1907, it became necessary to tear down the mansion, which was then beyond repair. William D. Wolverton, M. D., husband of Annie E. Willson (7), who was the daughter of James Willson and Mary A. Laing, built a new house on the original plot. The original carved stone is still in the west gable but under it is another similar stone marked - Rebuilt, W. D. W. - 1907. The house was sold in 1956 by Wolverton's grandchildren, Mrs. William B. Ewing Jr. (Florence W. Green) (9) and Howard W. Green (9). Mrs. Ewing retained sixty of the original six hundred acre tract.

Samuel Willson I was a minister in the Society of Friends for many years and the Kingwood Meeting, N. J. issued a memorial concerning him after his death in 1761. He was interred in the Friends burial ground at Quakertown, N. J.

SECOND GENERATION

In 1733, he had been appointed to the first board of trustees for the Kingwood Meeting. According to the Kingwood Memorial, Samuel's "life and conversation (in a good degree) was solid, sober, and orderly agreeable to his ministry. He was suddenly seized with death, not lying any time sick, so that he had no time then to declare any that might be on his mind to speak to any of his friends. Yet we have good reason to hope when we consider his former conduct while he was in health and strength that he has gone to enjoy the Immortal Crown that is laid up for the Righteous". The death date of Samuel's wife, Esther, has not been preserved but it is presumed that she was buried at Kingwood.

Samuel and Esther were the parents of eight children, who were born in Chesterfield Township, Burlington Co., N. J. Dates concerning these children and other data was obtained from Mary C. (Willson) Vail's (7) research and from page 460 of The Lundy Family and Their Descendents. Please note that the four Lundy persons, who married four of Samuel and Esther's children, were the children of Richard Lundy II and Elizabeth Large.

ISSUE:

3 i. Samuel Willson II (3). b. 11-9-1706; d. 1785. Married Deborah Willets.

4 ii. Robert Willson (3). b. 9-1-1709; d. 4-22-1785. Married Mary Lundy.

iii. Esther Willson (3). b. 8-8-1711; d. 5-6-1736. Married in 1731 to Henry Coate of Buckingham, Pa. Passed meeting at Chesterfield, N. J. on 3-6-1731. They purchased in 1733, 260 acres, which had belonged to Robert Willson (1). No more information.

5 iv. James Willson (3). b. 11-21-1713; d. 8-26-1777. Married Martha Laing.

v. Sarah Willson (3). b. 4-2-1715; d. 3-4-1748. Married Richard Heath in 1736. No more information.

vi. Ann Willson (3). b. 6-5-1720; d. 6-6-1821. Married Richard Lundy III. For issue, see pages 57-112 of The Lundy Family and Their Descendents.

SECOND GENERATION

vii. John Willson (3). b. 12-13-1723; d. 8-4-1770. Married the 11th day of 8th month, 1750, according to the minutes of Kingwood, N. J. Friends to Margaret Lundy, who was born 14-12-1732 and died in the 4th month of 1776. N. J. Wills, Liber 14, page 409 indicates that Samuel Lundy was the executor of John Willson's estate. Armstrong was unable to locate any record of children but family research indicates there were at least three children.

1. Hannah Willson (4).
   Married Crispin Pearson. Some of their descendents are listed in A Genealogy of Descendents of John Kirk, compiled by Miranda S. Kirk.
2. Amie Willson (4).
   Married 1st George Newburn Jr. and 2nd Robert Johnston.
3. Mordecai Willson (4).
   Married Ann ---. Parents of at least one child, Margaret, who married Levi Willson (5) no. 28.

6 viii. Gabriel Willson Sr. (3). b. 7-23-1725; d. 8-4-1770. Married Elizabeth Lundy.

THIRD GENERATION

3 SAMUEL WILLSON II (3), the son of Samuel Willson I (2) and Esther Overton, was born the 19th of the 11th month, 1706/7 and died in 1785. Married the 13th of the 5th month, 1732 at a Friends meeting in Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon Co., N. J. to Deborah Willets, who was born the 14th of the 1st month of 1712 and died the 2nd of the 6th month of 1772, the daughter of Joseph Willets of Hunterdon Co., N. J. He purchased about 230 acres from the northern and eastern side of his father's homestead, where he settled after his marriage. In 1743, he sold the eastern portion to his uncle, Samuel Large, and in 1747 conveyed the remainder to Samuel Stevenson. About this time, he migrated to Great Meadows, in what is now Warren Co., N. J., where he became prominent in civil affairs of the county. Member of the first Board of Justices and Freeholders of Sussex Co., N. J., which met March 21, 1754 and which governed the county in early times. Parents of ten children.

ISSUE:

x. Susanna Willson (4). b. 6-27-1757; Married Jacob Smith. No more information.

THIRD GENERATION

4 ROBERT WILLSON (3), the son of Samuel Willson I (2) and Esther Overton, was born in Chesterfield Township, Burlington Co., N. J. the 1st of the 9th month of 1709 and died the 22nd of the 4th month of 1785 in Great Meadows, Warren Co., then Sussex Co., N. J. He was probably named for his grandfather, Robert Willson (1), the emigrant, who mentioned him in his will. He probably lived with his parents at Crosswicks Creek, N. J., as there are several references to him in the minutes of the Chesterfield Society of Friends, N. J. Robert was buried in the Hardwick Friends Cemetery, N. J.

When Robert was twenty-five years old and after his parents had purchased their farm, near Quakertown, Hunterdon Co., N. J.; he made his first intentions to marry Mary Lundy on the 5th of the 6th month, 1734, at a meeting of the Society of Friends of the Buckingham and Plumstead separate from Wrightstown, Bucks Co., Pa. The following month, the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting, N. J. gave Robert clearance and approval to proceed to marry Mary Lundy. They made their second intentions of marriage at the Buckingham and Plumstead Meeting on the 7th day of the 8th month, 1734 and were granted "liberty to consummate their intentions according to the good order of truth". On the following day, they were married at the Plumstead Meeting and twenty-one of their kinsmen and friends signed the certificate of marriage. James Shaw and William Michenor, who were appointed to tend s'd marriage to see it decently accomplished made their report the 4th day of the 9th month of 1734. According to W. C. Armstrong's research, Robert and Mary's marriage certificate is copied on the 3rd page of the Record of Marriages for Hardwick and Randolph Monthly Meeting of Friends, N. J.

Mary Lundy, the daughter of Richard Lundy II and Elizabeth Large, was born the 6th of the 11th month, 1710 in Bucks Co., Pa. and died the 4th of the 3rd month, 1807 in Independence Township, Sussex Co., N. J. She was eighteen years old when married and became the mother of eight children, the last being born, when she was thirty-eight. In 1754, she was selected as an Elder for the Hardwick Preparative Meeting of Friends, N. J. and held that position until her death, which was the first entry in the Hardwick burial list. See the appendix concerning Mary Lundy's ancestry.

Robert and Mary lived for a short time after their marriage in Bucks Co., Pa and then moved to Franklin Township, Hunterdon Co., N. J. Later they moved to Chesterfield Township, Burlington Co., N. J., but in 1737 received a certificate of removal from the Chesterfield Monthly Meeting of Friends to the Exeter Monthly Meeting of Friends, Berks Co., Pa. The certificate was issued to only Robert and Mary Willson; consequently, Robert Willson Jr. (4), who was born 10-1-1736, must have died in infancy. Their second child, Samuel Willson (4) was born 10-8-1737, died, and was buried in Exeter Friends Grounds at Maiden Creek, Pa. Four other children, Ebenezer, Jonathan, David, and Mary, were born at Maiden Creek, Berks Co., Pa. to Robert and Mary Willson.

In 1747, Exeter Friends Meeting, Pa. granted a certificate of removal to Robert and Mary Willson to Bethlehem Meeting, N. J., which received them 4-14-1748. They settled in Great Meadows, Independence Township, Sussex Co., N. J. Their farm was located between Allamuchy Station and the Pequest River and north of the right-of-way of the Lehigh and Hudson Railroad. The farm was deeded by Robert in 1762 to his son, Ebenezer; by Ebenezer in Jan. of 1822 to his son, David; by David in 1842 to his son, Amos; and by Amos to his son, John Willson Sr., who sold it in the early 1900's to Mrs. Lucy Rutherford.

Robert Willson was a member of the first Board of Justices and Freeholders of Sussex Co., N. J., which met March 21, 1754 and which governed the county in early times. His brother, Samuel Willson II (3) and brother-in-law, Richard Lundy III, were also members of the board. According to W. C. Armstrong's research, Robert and Mary Willson were the parents of eight children, five of whom lived to maturity and married.

Martha, who wrote her name as Malthue, was the granddaughter of John and Margaret Laing, who came to Perth Amboy, N. J. from Craigforth, Aberdeen Co., Scotland in 1685 on the ship, Caledonia. After their marriage they settled on the Willson homestead, near Quakertown, N. J., where James engaged in farming and in the practice of medicine. He studied medicine with his mother's brother, Joseph Overton, M. D. of Burlington Co., N. J. James was probably one of the first regular doctors in Hunterdon Co., and is said to have given considerable attention to cancer treatment. In 1742, James purchased from his father the Willson homestead, including 220 acres, where he and Martha resided until their deaths. They were buried at Quakertown, 15 JONATHAN WILLSON SR. (4), the son of Robert Willson (3) and Mary Lundy, was born the 8th of the 8th month, 1741, Old Style at Maiden Creek in the County of Philadelphia, now Berks Co., Pa. and died Sept. 23, 1824 in Lycoming Co., Pa. His parents had moved to Maiden Creek, Pa. in 1737 from West Jersey but returned in 1748 to Hunterdon Co., N. J. within the limits of Bethlehem Friends Monthly Meeting. Married the 15th of the 4th month, 1767 at Hardwick Friends Meeting, N. J. to Abigail Schmuck, who was born the 27th of the 3rd month, 1748 and died Aug. 4, 1824 in Lycoming Co., Pa., the daughter of Peter Schmuck and Abigail Stevenson. Both were Elders of the Muncy Friends Monthly Meeting, Pa. and were formerly members of Hardwick Friends, N. J. until 1797, when they removed to Lycoming Co., Pa., where they settled in Loyalsock, now Eldred Township. Parents of eleven children, who were born in old Hardwick, Sussex Co., N. J. and who were members of the Hardwick Society of Friends.

Abigail's grandmother, Mercy (Jenings) Stevenson, was a daughter of Samuel Jenings, who was the first Governor of New (West) Jersey. Her great-grandmother, Elizabeth (Lawrence) Stevenson, was a daughter of Captain William Lawrence, who served as Deputy of the General Assembly of West Jersey, 1669-72 and 1695-6, as well as being a member of the Governor's Council of N. J. in 1702. See the appendix for more data concerning Abigail's Jenings and Stevenson's ancestry. Abigail's sister, Ann Schmuck, married Jonathan's brother, Moses, and two of her other sisters also married Willson brothers, who were first cousins of Jonathan. Elizabeth Schmuck married Joseph Willson and Sarah Schmuck married James Willson.

In 1796, Jonathan Sr. and his sons, Elihu and Jonathan Jr., made a trip to Pa., where he signed an agreement on the 1st of the 10th month, 1796 to purchase 214 acres of farm land in Loyalsock, now Eldred, Township, Lycoming Co., Pa. Elihu and Jonathan Jr. were witnesses to the agreement. The first payment was made the 31st of the 7th month, 1797 to Wm. Dale, Loyalsock Township, Lycoming Co., Pa. and the second and last payment on the 10th of the 12th month, 1799, but the deed was not made to Jonathan Sr., until March 20, 1812 and was signed by Laniel Bailey, Justice of Peace. Part of the original farm may have been deeded to Jonathan Willson Jr.

FOURTH GENERATION

18 CHARITY WILLSON (4), the daughter of Gabriel Willson Sr.(3) and Elizabeth Lundy, was born the 6th of the 11th month of 1749 in Warren Co., N. J. She and Henry Willets Sr. declared their first intentions to marry on the 14th of the 7th month, 1768 before the Kingwood, now Quakertown, Monthly Meeting of Friends in Hunterdon Co., N. J. and remained under the care of that meeting for seventeen years. On the 11th of the 8th month, 1785, Henry requested a certificate of removal for himself and his wife and their eight children to the Deep River Monthly Meeting, N. C. Settled in Muddy Creek, Stokes Co., N. C., where four additional children were born and where they remained until 1817. Deep River granted certificates of removal to Charity and her daughter, Charity, on 9-1-1817 to Lee's Creek Monthly Meeting, which was near New Lexington, Highland Co., Ohio, and which received them on 12-17-1817, however, Henry Willets Sr. was not received until 5-16-1818. Lee's Creek granted on 7-16-1820 certificates of removal to Henry, his wife, and daughter, Charity to Stillwater Monthly Meeting of Friends in Belmont Co., Chio, which received them on 9-23-1820. The Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, compiled by William Wade Hinshaw and published in 1936, made it possible to trace the migration of Henry and Charity Willets to Ohio and page 795 of Volume I listed the birth records of their twelve children. Information concerning their children, as well as more data about them can be obtained from the various volumes of the set. The death dates of Henry and Charity (Willson) Willets could not be found by the compilier.

24 JEREMIAH WILLSON SR. (4), the son of Gabriel Willson Sr. (3) and Elizabeth Lundy, was born the 10th of the 8th month of 1771 in Warren Co., N. J. and died in Dec. of 1828 or Jan. of 1829 in Vigo Co., Ind. His will was made and signed on Dec. 20, 1828 and was recorded Jan. 9, 1829 in Vigo Co., Ind., where a copy of it appears on page 32 of Will Book A. It is thought that Jeremiah is buried in a Vigo Co., Ind. cemetery, which is now a peach orchard; the headstones were said to have been removed by the purchaser of the land and the orchard planted. He was first married to Joanna Moore of Woodbridge, N. J., who died sometime before June of 1813 and was buried in Cincinnati, Ohio "Public Burial Grounds". His second wife was Elizabeth ----, who after Jeremiah's death was married in May of 1829 to Joshua Crow and removed to Marshall, Clark Co., Ill.

Society of Friends records state that Jeremiah and Joanna Willson received a certificate of membership from Kingwood Monthly Meeting, Hunterdon Co., N. J. to Westland Monthly Meeting, Washington Co., Pa. on the 9th of the 5th month, 1793. On the 26th of the 4th month, 1774, Jeremiah and Joanna requested from Westland an endorsement of their membership to Redstone Monthly Meeting, Fayette Co., Pa., which was nearer their home. Redstone granted a certificate of removal the 30th of the 11th month, 1810 to Miami Monthly Meeting, Warren Co., Ohio to Jeremiah, Joanna, and five of their children; Gabriel, Elizabeth, Edith, Henry, and William. For some reason their sixth and recent born son, John, was not listed in the certificate. Sometime before June of 1813, Jeremiah and his family migrated to Cincinnati, Ohio, where Joanna died soon after the birth of Jeremiah Jr. It is not known where Jeremiah Sr. lived or traveled between 1813-1819, at which time he settled in Vigo Co., Ind. It appears that he left his family with relatives in Chio, until April 18, 1819, when Cincinnati, Chio Monthly Meeting of Friends granted a certificate of removal to Lick Creek, Ind. Friends meeting, which was in the vicinity of Orange Co. Again the sixth child, John is not mentioned, however, it is likely that he remained with relatives in Chio, and later settled in Vigo Co. as he is mentioned in his father's will. The 1820 U. S. Census for Vigo Co., Ind. listed Jeremiah Willson Sr. as being married to Elizabeth, whose maiden name is not known.

The Lundy Family and Their Descendants did not give the names of Jeremiah Willson Sr.'s children, however, his will listed eleven children and stated that Gabriel was the eldest. During 1945-47, Mrs. Herbert E. Brown of Terre Haute, Ind. uncovered more data concerning Jeremiah and his descendants. At least seven children were born by Jeremiah's first marriage and four by his second. Jeremiah's widow, Elizabeth, and her husband, Joshua Crow, were made guardians of Jeremiah's four youngest children, but were relieved of that duty in 1832, due to mistreatment and abuse of their guardian power. William Foster, brother-in-law of the children, was made their guardian. See the Vigo Co., Ind. Probate Records concerning the guardianship of Jeremiah's children and the settlement of his estate. Jeremiah's farm was probably located in section 20, township 10, range 10, Vigo Co., Ind., since he had purchased this tract from the Vincennis, Ind. land office. Later the land was quitclaimed in 1831 and 1835 to Jeremiah's son-in-law, William Foster.

51 GABRIEL WILLSON SR. (5), the eldest son of Jeremiah Willson Sr. (4) and Joanna Moore, was probably born in Washington Co., Pa. and died about 1840 in Knox Co., Ind. Married Feb. 23, 1819 in Vigo Co., Ind. to Sarah Frakes, who was not a Quaker and who died in 1830. Honey Creek, Ind. Friends finally disowned Gabriel on May 11, 1822 for marrying out of the Society. Gabriel and Sarah were the parents of five children, who were born in the extreme southern part of Vigo Co., Ind. Gabriel was married for a second time Sept. 20, 1831 in Vigo Co., Ind. to Hannah Barrett, who died about 1848. Both Gabriel and Hannah are buried at Monroe City, Ind. After Gabriel's death, Hannah married a Mr. Myers and had a daughter, Elizabeth Myers, who married a Mr. Brown. Soon after Gabriel's second marriage, he removed to Knox Co. Ind., where he purchased 182½ acres in the northeast end of Donation lot #228 from John and Hannah Wise. Fifty acres of Donation lot #228 were sold by Gabriel and Hannah on Feb. 25, 1836 to Mathias Berry. Vigo Co., Ind. deed records indicate that Gabriel also owned 25 acres on Wilson's Creek in Harrison Township, Knox Co., Ind. Gabriel Willson also entered 62 and 1/5 acres of land in the north half of northeast quarter fraction, section 25, township 2, range 8 in the Knox Co., Ind. Tract Book on May 14, 1836. Five children were born in Knox Co., Ind. by Gabriel's marriage to Hannah Barrett. James D. Williams, later Governor of Ind.

SIXTH GENERATION

74 ELISHA WILLSON (6), the son of Robert Willson (5) and Rhoda Dell, was born March 14, 1810 in Warren Co., N. J. and died May 18, 1866 in Sycamore Township, Wyandot Co., Ohio. Married May 8, 1833 at Hardwick Friends Meeting House in Independence Township, Warren Co., N. J. to his fifth cousin, Huldah Dennis Shotwell, who was born April 10, 1814 in Warren Co., N. J. and died Dec. 1, 1907 in Sycamore Township, Wyandot Co., Ohio. According to their marriage certificate, now the property of Carl J. Willson (8) of Mansfield, Ohio, there were fourteen relatives, who witnessed the marriage. Among those who signed the certificate were Huldah's grandparents, Levi and Sarah T. Lundy. Others signing were Jane H. Willson, Enoch Willson, Christiana Willson, Willets Lundy, Thomas D. Willson, Hannah Lundy, Christian S. Willson, John Dell, Jane Dell, Mary Dell, Sarah B. Lundy, and Elizabeth W. Lundy.

Huldah was the daughter of Zackariah Shotwell and his first wife, Elizabeth Lundy. She and her two older sisters, Sarah L. Shotwell and Bathsheba Pound Shotwell, were raised by their grandfather, Levi Lundy. Bathsheba married Elisha's cousin, Jacob L. Willson. Elisha's great-grandmother, Mary (Lundy) Willson, was a sister of Huldah's great-grandfather. Judge Samuel Lundy. Huldah's ancestry is very interesting as she is a double descendant of Elizabeth Fones, the niece and daughter-in-law of the Puritan Governor John Winthrop of Mass. Bay Colony. Huldah is a descendant of Elizabeth's second marriage to Lt. Robert Feake, as well as of her marriage to William Hallett Sr. Huldah is also a double descendant of the Quaker leader, John Bowne's first marriage to Hannah Feake and of his third marriage to Mary Cock.

Both Elisha and Huldah were raised Quakers and were members of the Hicksite sect. In 1834, they migrated from N. J. to Ohio, where they settled near Sycamore, which was then in Crawford, now Wyandot Co. Elisha arrived with $ 300, with which he purchased 80 raw acres of land in Sycamore Township, Wyandot Co., Ohio. On one occasion, Elisha traded an old horse for a clock and another animal for a yoke of oxen. His cattle would often wander miles away from home and at one time, when going after them, lost his own way and would have been compelled to stay out all night, had he not followed the cows, who had learned the way. He served as a township official for Sycamore Township, Wyandot Co., Ohio for 1853-4, 1857-9, and 1866. Elisha and Huldah were buried in the Quaker Cemetery, near Sycamore, Ohio. Both Armstrong and Shotwell stated that Elisha and Huldah did not have any children, however, they were the parents of five children, who were born in Sycamore Township, Wyandot Co., Ohio. Names and dates of birth for their children were taken from Elisha and Huldah's family Bible, which is now the property of the compiler.

Albert Stanley Wilson Sr.'s correspondence during 1947-8 with Mr. John Nichols, Librarian, Friends House, London, England and his personal visit with him at the Library in 1953, disclosed Robert and Ann Willson's marriage certificate. Although Robert spelled his name as Willson, it is listed as Wilson.

BOWNE FAMILY

Anthony Bowne (1) of Lime Tree Farm, Matlock, Derbyshire, England married and had a son Thomas (2), who was baptized July 25, 1594 at Matlock and died Sept. 18, 1677 at Flushing, Long Island. In 1649, Thomas and his son John (3), who was born about March 1, 1627/28 at Matlock and died Oct. 10, 1695 at Flushing, Long Island, came to Boston. In 1650, John returned to England but came back to Boston in 1651. He and his father settled at Flushing, Long Island, where according to Thompson's History of Long Island, they "were among the earliest and most venerable inhabitants of Flushing." John became a prominent Quaker leader and suffered persecution under Governor Peter Stuyvesant for allowing Friends meetings in his home. He was arrested and sent as a prisoner to Amsterdam, Holland, where the Dutch West India Co. Directors released him and allowed him to return to America, bringing with him their noteworthy rebuke to the colonial officials for such religious interference. The West India Company's April 16, 1663 proclamation established religious liberty in New Netherland, on the ground that "people's consciences should not be forced but every one left free to his belief." After returning to America, John became a large landholder and farmer and in 1683 was Queens' Co. N. Y. treasurer. In 1656, he married Hannah Feake, who died Feb. 2, 1677/78 at London, England, while on a religious trip, the daughter of Lt. Robert Feake and Elizabeth (Fones) Winthrop. They were the parents of eight children, including their daughter. Mary Bowne (4), who was born Jan. 6, 1660/61 and who was married in 1680 to Joseph Thorne, the son of Thomas Thorne of Flushing, Long Island. In 1679, John Bowne (3) married Hannah Bickerstaff and they were the parents of six children. His third marriage was 4-26-1693 to Mary Cock, who was born 11-1-1655, the daughter of James and Sarah (---) Cock. Two children were born by his last marriage, including Amy Bowne (4), who was born April 1,1694 and died Nov. 7, 1733. She married Richard Hallett, son of William Hallett Jr. and Sarah Woolsey. Mary Thorne (5), who was born Aug. 22, 1686, was married in 1709 to John Shotwell Jr. and their son, Benjamin Shotwell Sr. (6) was married in 1746 to his cousin, Ame Hallett (5), 1727-1796, the daughter of Richard and Amy (Bowne) (4) Hallett. For continuation of Bowne descent, see the Shotwell Family. See also the Feake, Fones and Hallett families.

FEAKE FAMILY

Members of the family were living as early as 1435 within the parish or manor of Wighton, Norfolk, England. William Feake (1) was buried in the Wighton Church, Norfolk and his will was probated Oct. 11, 1500 at Hyndryngham. His son, James Feake (2), was born about 1484 and died in 1523 and was buried in the Church of Wighton. He married and had James Feake (3), who was called Jacobus Feake de Whighton in Norfolk in a 1623 pedigree. His will was probated July 18, 1539 at Walsingham and he was buried in the Wighton Church. Married Agnes --- and had William Feake (4), who was born at Wighton, Norfolk, England and died May, 1595 at London, England, where he was buried in the Church of Saint Edmund the King. According to George E. McCracken's research, William was probably a London goldsmith and "must have amassed a considerable fortune" by the time of his death, as he was a resident and parishioner of Saint Edmund the King, Lombard St. where he was buried. Fourteen children were born by his wives, Mary and Margaret Wetherall. James Feake (5), the son of William and his wife, Margaret, was probably born about 1567 in London and was a goldsmith within the city. He was married Jan. 29, 1592/93 at St. Nicholas Acons Church, London, England to Judith Thomas, who was buried Dec. 24, 1625 in the Church of Saint Edmund the King and the daughter of Robert Thomas, a London citizen and draper, and Judith Fisher. They were the parents of four children, including Lt. Robert Feake (6).

Robert Feake (6) was probably born in 1602 and died Feb. 1, 1660/61 at Watertown, Mass. Apprenticed Sept. 21, 1615 for eight years to his father, who was a goldsmith. In 1630, he came to America with the Winthrop Fleet and settled in the Mass. Bay Colony. He was made May 18, 1631 a freeman of Watertown, where he was one of earliest and largest proprietors. Commissioned Sept. 4, 1632 as a lieutenant under Captain Daniel Patrick of Watertown, Mass. and served Sept. 3, 1634 on a committee to prepare fortifications. Deputy to the General Court of Mass. Bay Colony from 1634-1636. Elected in 1636 and 1638 as selectman of Watertown, Mass. In 1640, he and Capt. Patrick purchased the site of Greenwich, Conn. from the Indians, but were forced in 1642 to become Dutch patroons. He was considered insane for several years before his death, however his mental illness may have been nothing more than frequent nervous breakdowns. Court testimony given by John Bishop, Richard Lawe and Francis Bell states that Robert Feake " was a man whose God-fearing heart was so absorbed with spiritual and heavenly things that he little thought of the things of this life, and took neither heed nor care of what was tendered to his external property." Married before the end of Jan., 1632 to Elizabeth (Fones) Winthrop, who may have received a legal divorce to marry William Hallett Sr. Robert and Elizabeth were the parents of five children. Their daughter, Hannah Feake (7), was born in 1637 and died Feb. 2, 1677/78 in London, England, while on a religious trip. She was a Society of Friends minister. She was married July 7, 1656 to John Bowne. For continuation of descent, see the Bowne Family. See also the Fones and Winthrop families.

FONES FAMILY

William Fownes (1), Esquire of Saxby, Worcester, England, married --- Hyelton, daughter of Robert Hyelton, Knight, who lived about 1400 A. D. George Fownes (2) married --- Milbranck, daughter of --- Milbranck of Malpass. William Fownes or Fones (3) of Saxby, Worcester, England, married --- Telham, daughter of --- Telham. John Fones I (4) married --- Bradley, daughter of --- Bradley. John Fones II (5) married Lewell, daughter of --- Lewell of Lewell. John Fones III (6) of Didford, Worcestershire married and had a son, Thomas Fones (7) of Bristol, who had a son, Thomas Fones (8). Thomas (8) was a citizen and apothecary of London, England in 1628 at the Three Fawns, Old Bailey and died April 15, 1629. He was first married Feb. 25, 1604/5 to Anne Winthrop, daughter of Adam Winthrop III and Anne Browne. They were the parents of Samuel, Elizabeth and Martha.

Elizabeth Fones (9), was born Jan. 21, 1609/10 at Groton Manor, Suffolk, England and probably died in 1673 at Newtown, Long Island Married April 25, 1629 at London, England to her first cousin, Henry Winthrop, who was born in 1608 and drown July 2, 1630, the son of Governor John Winthrop. They were the parents of one daughter, Martha Johanna Winthrop, who married Thomas Lyon of Stanford, Conn. Elizabeth and her daughter sailed on the Lyon to Mass. Bay Colony and arrived there Nov. 2, 1631. Within less than three months, Elizabeth married Lt. Robert Feake and they were the parents of five children. Their daughter, Hannah Feake (10), married John Bowne. See the Bowne family for continuation of descent. Elizabeth probably divorced Robert and married William Hallett Sr., by whom she had two children. Her son, William Hallett Jr. (10) married Sarah Woolsey. See the Hallett family for more information. Elizabeth's great-granddaughter, Ame Hallett (12) married Benjamin Shotwell Jr. (13), who was a great-great-grandson of Elizabeth. Elizabeth Fones has thousands of descendants, many of whom have a vague feeling that they should be ashamed of her, but the author's preface of Anya Seton's Winthrop Woman, published in 1958, makes you proud of her. It says: " I believe that her life was significant and praiseworthy. True she was a rebel against the Puritant code, as exemplified by her uncle, guardian and father-in-law, Governor John Winthrop. She was also a woman, who suffered the handicaps peculiar to her sex and time, but she had the remarkable endurance, which characterized all the first settlers --- those who managed to survive." See the Bowne, Feake, Hallett, Shotwell and Winthrop families.

HALLETT FAMILY

William Hallett Sr. (1), was probably born about 1616 at Dorsetshire, England and died when 94 years old. His parentage is not known but there is an interesting Dorsetshire legend that his father was fasely accused of stealing a horse of the Earl of Bristol and hanged. Later the Earl found his missing horse, which resembled Hallett's. The Earl asked the widow how he could make up for the injustice and she requested that her son, William be raised a gentleman. As the story goes, William was made a page for six years at Sherborne Castle, where he lived with the Earl's family and was educated by their tutor. He emigrated to Greenwich, Conn., where in 1647, he with Elizabeth (Fones Winthrop) Feake were given charge of her insane husband's property. In 1649, he and Elizabeth removed to Newtown, Long Island and in 1654 settled on what is known as Hallett's Cove, near Hellgate, but their land was laid waste by the Indians in about Sept.,1655. In 1656, William was Schout or chief official of Flushing, Long Island but was shortly after temporarily imprisoned and banished by Governor Stuyvesant for allowing William Wickenden to hold Baptist conventicles in Hallett's house. He was later released but deprived of office. Two sons, William Hallett Jr and Samuel Hallett, were born to William Sr. and Elizabeth. William Sr. was later married three more times. William Hallett Jr. (2) was probably born in 1646 and died Aug. 18, 1729. He served as a Justice of Peace and as Captain of Foot Co. Married Sarah Woolsey, the daughter of George and Rebecca (---) Woolsey of Jamaica, N. Y. Sarah's great-grandfather was Thomas Woolsey and her grandfather, Benjamin Woolsey. Her father, George Woolsey, was born Oct. 27, 1610 at Yarmouth, England and he and his father supposedly lived for sometime in Holland, until 1623, when they came to America with Dutch emigrants. George Woolsey died Aug. 17, 1698 and was one of the original settlers of Jamaica, N. Y. Richard Hallett Sr. (3) was born Nov. 17, 1691 and died May 19, 1769 at Newtown, Long Island, where he resided. He was a member of the Society of Friends and was married Nov. 14, 1717 to Amy Bowne, the daughter of John Bowne and Mary Cock. Their daughter, Ame Hallett (4) was born 5-3-1727 and died 15-9-1796 and married her second-half Bowne and fourth-half Winthrop cousin, Benjamin Shotwell Sr. For continuation of descent, see the Shotwell family. See also the Bowne, Fones and Winthrop families.

LUNDY FAMILY

Sylvester Lundy (1) of Axminster, Devonshire Co., England, is the earliest known ancestor. His son, Richard Lundy I (2), who died about 1738 at Maiden Creek, Berks Co., Pa., sailed from Bristol, England on the catch of Mr. William Browne in the 6th month,1676 for Boston, New England. He remained there until the 19th of the 3rd month, 1682, when he settled in Bucks Co., Pa. Richard I (2), who was an Elder in the Society of Friends, had 1000 acres of land in Buckingham township, Bucks Co., Pa. confirmed on him by William Penn in 1688. In 1684, Richard I (2) married Elizabeth Bennett, who died without issue in 1687. On the 24th of the 4th month, 1691, he was married in the Society of Friends Meeting, Bucks Co., Pa. to Jane Lyon, who was born in April, 1666 and died in or before 1737. Jane, who was an orphan, accompanied the James Harrison family of Bolton, Lancaster Co., England to America in 1682 on the ship, "Submission", which set sail on the 5th of the 7th month, 1682 and arrived in Chespeake Bay, Maryland on the 21st of the 9th month, 1682. Richard Lundy II (3), the only child of Richard Lundy I (2), was born the 20th of the 3rd month, 1692 in Bucks Co., Pa. and died the 28th of the 2nd month, 1772 in Allamuchy Township, Warren Co., N. J. Richard II (3) was married the 3rd of the 4th month, 1714 at the Hardwick and Randolph

Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends in Warren and Morris Counties, N. J. to Elizabeth Large, the daughter of Joseph Large of Bucks Co., Pa. Richard II (3) and Elizabeth lived from 1714-1737 in Buckingham Township, Bucks Co., Pa, where their nine children were born. From 1737-1747, Richard II (2) and his family lived at Maiden Creek, Berks Co., Pa., but removed in 1747 to Allamuchy Township, Warren Co., N. J. All of Richard II's and Elizabeth's children married, settled in Warren Co., N. J. and were members of the Society of Friends. Four of their children married children of Samuel Willson I and Esther Overton. Their son, Richard Lundy III (4) married Ann Willson; their daughters: Mary Lundy (4) married Robert Willson; Elizabeth Lundy (4) married Gabriel Willson Sr.; and Margaret Lundy (4) married John Willson. Another son, Jacob Lundy (4) married Mary Willson, a granddaughter of Samuel Willson I. Their son, Judge Samuel Lundy (4) had two great-granddaughters, who married Willson's; Bathsheba Pound Shotwell married Jacob Lundy Willson and Huldah Dennis Shotwell married Elisha Willson. Many other Lundy descendants married into the Willson family. For more data concerning the Lundy family, see William C. Armstrong's The Lundy Family and Their Descendants, which was published in 1902.

SHOTWELL FAMILY

Abraham Shotwell (1) was fourth on a list of Elizabethtown, N. J. inhabitants, who took the oath of allegiance to King Charles II in 1665. He was a prominent defender of the settlers' opposition to Gov. Philip Carteret and the Lords Proprietors in the matter of oppressive quit-rent. Consequently his land was confiscated and he was exiled to New York, where he died about 1680 on Staten Island. His son, John Sr. (2) recovered his father's Union Co., N. J. land in 1683. John, who was a member of the Society of Friends, died at Woodbridge, N. J. in 1718. In 1679, he married Mary Burton of N. Y. and had at least four children: John Jr.; Abraham; Elizabeth; and Sarah. John Jr. (3) was born about 1686 and died in 1762. In 1709, he married Mary Thorne, 1686-1763, the daughter of Joseph and Mary (Bowne) Thorne of Flushing, Long Island and granddaughter of John Bowne and Hannah Feake. Her great-grandparents were Lt. Robert Feake and Elizabeth (Fones) Winthrop, who was a niece of the Puritan Gov. John Winthrop of Mass. Bay Colony. John Jr.'s youngest son, Benjamin Shotwell Sr. (4) was born in 1726 and died in 1793 and in 1746 married his second cousin, Ame Hallett, the daughter of Richard and Amy(Bowne) Hallett. Ame was also a granddaughter of John Bowne and his wife Sarah Cock, as well as the great-granddaughter of William Hallett Sr. and Elizabeth (Fones Winthrop) Feake. Nine children were born to Benjamin Shotwell Sr. and Ame. Their daughter, Elizabeth (5) married Joseph Lundy and was the mother of the anti-slavery agitator, Benjamin Lundy. Their son, Benjamin Shotwell Jr. (5) who was born in 1759 and died in 1848, was married in 1781 to Bathsheba Pound, the daughter of Zackariah and Elizabeth (Smith) Pound and granddaughter of Elijah Pound and Bathsheba(---)Pound. Zackariah Shotwell (6), the son of Benjamin Jr., was born Aug. 8, 1788 in Sussex Co., N. J. and died Sept. 18, 1857 at Macedon Centre, N. Y. He was a member of the Society of Friends, a farmer and resided in Genesse and Wayne Counties, N. Y. He first married Elizabeth Lundy, who was born June 27, 1792 and died Dec. 13, 1816, the daughter of Levi Lundy and Sarah Tomer. They were the parents of Sarah Lundy Shotwell (7), who married Jonathan L. Kester and settled in Wyandot Co., Ohio; Bathsheba Pound Shotwell (7), who married Jacob Lundy Willson; Huldah Dennis Shotwell (7), who married Elisha Willson; and Levi Lundy Shotwell (7). See page 55 for Bathsheba's issue and page 70 for Huldah's issue. Zackariah's second wife was Edna Lundy and they were the parents of Daniel L. and Edwin Benjamin. Elizabeth H. Lundy was his third wife and they were the parents of Samuel Lundy and Edna Ann. For more information concerning the family, see Ambrose M. Shotwell's The Annals of Our Colonial Ancestors or Quaker Forefathers and Their Posterity.

STEVENSON FAMILY

New York Reformed Dutch Church records show that Thomas Stevenson (1) was born in 1615 and came from London, England. He probably landed in Va. about 1643 but later settled at Southhold, Long Island, prior to Feb. of 1645. Married Aug. 15, 1645 in New Amsterdam Reformed Dutch Church to Mary (Bullock) Bernard, the widow of William Bernard. At least four children: John; Edward; Thomas and Sarah; were born to Thomas (1) and Mary. Their son, Thomas II (2), was probably born about 1648 and became a large land owner at Newtown, Long Island. In Feb. of 1672, he married Elizabeth Lawrence, the daughter of Captain William Lawrence, who was born about 1623 at St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England and to America on the ship "Planter". Captain Lawrence served as Deputy to the General Assembly of West Jersey, from 1669-72 and from 1695-6 and later was a member of the Governor's Council of New (West) Jersey in 1702. Four children: John; Thomas III; William; and Elizabeth were born of Thomas II's marriage to Elizabeth. Later he married Ann --- and had Daniel; Nathaniel; Stephen; and Ann. In 1702, Thomas II (2) began buying land in New Jersey and later his son John (3) settled on the land on Doctor's Creek, Nottingham Township, Burlington Co. John (3) was a member of the Chesterfield Society of Friends and was married in 1705/6 to Mercy Jenings, daughter of Samuel Jenings, who was the first Governor of West Jersey, being appointed in 1680 and elected in 1683 by the General Assembly. In 1703, Samuel Jenings was elected as Speaker of the General Assembly of New Jersey. Samuel Jenings and his family came from Coleshill, Buckinghamshire, England. John Stevenson (3) and Mercy Jenings were the parents of six children, including their daughter, Abigail (4), who married Peter Schmuck or Smoak. Peter and Abigail Schmuck were the parents of seven children, including their daughters: Sarah (5), who married James Willson Sr.; Elizabeth (5), who married Joseph Willson; Anne (5), who married Moses Willson; and Abigail (5), who married Jonathan Willson Sr.

WINTHROP FAMILY

Adam Winthrop I (1) and his wife Joane Burton lived in Lavenham Co., Suffolk, England, where their son, Adam Winthrop II (2) was born Oct. 9, 1498. Joane later married John Ponder, a clothworker of London. Adam II (2), who died Nov. 9, 1562, founded the fortunes of the family and was a citizen and clothworker of London, which granted him the freedom of the city in 1526. By a grant of 1544, he obtained the Manor of Groton, Suffolk, formerly belonging to Bury St. Edmunds monastery. In 1548, he was granted a coat of arms. By his wives Alice Hunne and Agnes Sharpe, he left seven children. He and Agnes, who died May 13, 1565 the daughter of Robert Sharpe, were married July 20, 1534 in London. Their son, Adam III (3), who was born Aug. 10, 1548 at London and died March 28, 1623, was a graduate of Magadalen College, a lawyer and court magistrate. He served as auditor for St. John's and Trinity Colleges at Cambridge from 1594-1609. Married in 1574 to Alice Still, who died without issue in 1579. Married Feb. 20,1579/80 to Anne Browne, who died April 16, 1585, the daughter of Henry Browne, who was a clothier at Edwardston, Suffolk Co., England. Adam III (3) and Anne were the parents of four daughters and one son. Their son was John Winthrop the Elder, who became the first governor of Mass. Bay Colony. Their daughter, Anne Winthrop (4), who was born Jan. 16, 1585 and died May, 1618, was married Feb. 25, 1604 to Thomas Fownes or Fones, who was a citizen and apothecary in London. Elizabeth Fones (5), who was born Jan. 21, 1609/10, was first married to her cousin, Henry Winthrop, who was drown July 2, 1630, the son of Governor Winthrop. Anya Seton's historical novel, The Winthrop Woman, published in 1958 is about Elizabeth Fones (5), who also married Lt. Robert Feake and William Hallett Sr. Those members of the Willson family, who are Winthrop descendants are descended through Elizabeth's two children: Hannah Feake (6), who married John Bowne;and William Hallett Jr., who married Sarah Woolsey. See the Bowne, Feake, Fones and Shotwell families. For more data concerning the Winthrop family, see The Winthrop-Babcock Genealogy, published in 1927 and prepared by Josephine C. Frost.

Brown, Mrs. Herbert E. "The Willson Family, 1682 - 1850". Typed manuscript, Terre Haute, Ind., 1945 - 1947. Pp. 30. Very few copies. Traces the ancestry and descendants of Jeremiah Willson (4), who was not covered by Armstrong. Compiled from Ind., N. J., Pa., and Ohio Friends Records; Vigo and Knox Counties, Ind. Court Records; and personal interviews and correspondences.

Cocks, George William. Cock - Cocks - Cox Family. 2nd ed. New York, 1914. Source of ancestry and descendants of John Bowne and Mary Cock.

Frost, Josephine C. The Winthrop - Babcock Genealogy. 1927. Covers Fones and Winthrop ancestry of Elizabeth Fones and her issue.

Hinshaw, William Wade. The Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy. 1936. Useful in tracing Willson descendants.

The History of Hardin County, Ohio. 1883. Contains biography of Jehu Roy Willson Sr.

Jones, Rufus M. The Quakers in The American Colonies. London: MacMillan, 1911. Contains data on Samuel Jenings.

McCracken, George E. "The Feake Family of Norfolk, London and Colonial America". The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record. Vol. LXXXVI (1955), July, pp. 132-148 and Oct., pp. 209-221. Excellent account of Robert Feake's ancestry and marriage.

Piety, Charles R. An Early History of The Piety Family and Kinsmen. Chicago: 1956. Reliable for Jeremiah Willson (4) and descendants. Contains Willson photographs. Data concerning Samuel Willson (p. 117-118) should be checked with that in the Dictionary of American Biography.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Shotwell, Ambrose M. The Annals of Our Colonial Ancestors or Our Quaker Forefathers and Their Posterity. 1895. Willson data similar to Armstrong's. Lists Feake, Fones, Hallett, and Winthrop ancestors.

Stevenson, John R. Thomas Stevenson of London England and His Descendants. Flimington, N. J.: Hiram Edmund Deats, Publisher, 1962. Consulted for Jenings, Lawrence and Schmuck information.

Vail, Mary Caroline (Willson). "Genealogical and Other Data Relating To The Willson Family". Typed manuscript. Basic and reliable. Contains more dates and details than Armstrong. Some sections were kept up to date by the compiler's children and grand-niece, Florence W. Green (9).

Wilson, Albert Stanley Sr. " Early Willson History". Typed manuscript. 1955. Excellent research and new facts concerning Robert (1) and Samuel (2) Willson. Traces the descendants of Jonathan Willson Jr. (5) of Lycoming Co., Pa. Data was gathered from Society of Friends records; family records; local and county histories published about Lycoming Co., Pa.; and genealogical research in N. J., Pa. and England.
